

SENATE BILL S03-02
January 27, 2003

TITLE: NAGPS Lobby Day Travel Expenses

WHEREAS: The National Association of Graduate and Professional Students is currently campaigning for changes to the Federal tax code that would benefit graduate and professional students, including those at ISU, and

WHEREAS: The NAGPS Lobby Day, to be held in Washington, DC on February 20, 2003, presents a unique opportunity for advocates for graduate and professional students to influence Federal legislators to enact those changes, and

WHEREAS: The chairmanship of the U.S. Senate Finance Committee is currently held by an Iowan, Senator Charles Grassley, making graduate and professional student voices from Iowa particularly effective in these lobbying efforts, be it therefore

ENACTED: That the following expenditure of Graduate Student Senate funds to support GSS President Dee Egdorf's travel to and participation in the 2003 NAGPS Lobby Day is authorized:

Airfare:	$238.00
Hotel: $115.00 / day X 4 days =	$460.00
Meals: $40.00 / day X 4 days =	$160.00
Total:	$858.00

Sponsors: Egdorf, Marsh

---

Dee Egdorf, President

---

Fred Iutzi, Parliamentarian